Chapter 1 by Darkdragon6026

As I walk along the once great city now dystopia, I... hang on, let me catch you up. The Year 2648, My name... That's not important, and how the city turned into a dystopia? The main generator in the central tower backfired causing a horrible blackout. All power, GONE causing mass panic. Without power the dome protecting us deactivated allowing a parasite to enter the city and infect some of the people. Now I wander across with glass crunching under my feet and the weight of my modified rifle on my back. Then I hear a rustling coming from the side. I get my rifle at the ready, and then I see it...

Chapter 2 by Gizmo

A person holding a gun up to my head and I was holding it up to her. She looked about 18 but it was hard to tell with dirt on her face. It felt like there was an emptiness inside her. She was one of them. It looked like her REAL self-was trying to stop what was about to happen. I had never killed a person nor did I want to but at this point, it was an 18-year-old girl whose life ended when she caught the virus or me. I aimed it directly in the center of her forehead and pulled the trigger. It now felt empty inside me.....so empty...
